HOME SALUTE AMAZING LIFE HISTORY ARCHIVES ICON MANN

#SaluteALegend

Curated By  LEXUS
EXPERIENCE AMAZING

There is a pervasive narrative that even now, in 2017, seeks to undermine the necessity, potential, and positive realities of Black men. It is one that has never sat right with me, personally and as part of the ICON MANN collective, because life experience and daily examples set by many great Black men -like you- tell me otherwise. Everyday there is an acute awareness of your grace, integrity, passion, pride, strength of character, and purpose. I am reminded of this each time I think of the legendary Sidney Poitier.

Much has been written about Mr. Poitier's more than 70 years in entertainment as an Actor, Director, Best-selling Author, the first Black man to win an Academy Award, Diplomat, global Humanitarian, and the list goes on. What has never been explored is the very reality of how his being and journey to these accomplishments have inspired an immeasurable amount of men-Black, White and beyond.

We are all the torchbearers of our history and as such we come together in an ICON MANN Salute to the 90th year of the legendary Mr. Sidney Poitier. Here you will find a behind the scenes capture of the full-length documentary feature that is currently in production. May it inspire you to not only document the legend in your life, but share with us how you honor him.

Peace and continued blessings.

HISTORY

1963

Poitier wins an Academy Award for Lilies in the Field and becomes the first Black actor to win Best Actor. He also participates in the March on Washington.

A LIFETIME OF AMAZING

Long considered one of the greatest actors to grace the silver screen, American-born-Bahamian raised Sidney Poitier's first foray to acting was at the age of 16 where upon arriving in New York City, working as dishwasher to make ends meet, he responded to a casting call for American Negro Theater in England.

Lacking prior performance experience Sidney was not an obvious fit for the theater but he had great determination to change the course of his life for better. To offset the cost of acting lessons, Sidney worked as a janitor at the American Negro Theater and soon found himself as the understudy to fellow icon-in-the-making Harry Belafonte. Filling in for Mr. Belafonte one evening, Sidney was discovered and cast in the 1946 Broadway production of the classic Greek play, Lysistrata.

In 1950, Sidney made his film debut in No Way Out, playing a doctor called on to treat two racist White robbery suspects. The role would earn the actor high praise and kick off a decade memorable film roles, including Cry, the Beloved Country, Blackboard Jungle, Porgy and Bess, and The Defiant Ones. This 1958 film co-starred Tony Curtis, and would score Sidney his first Academy Award nomination.

CHADWICK BOSEMAN UPS HIS GAME

STAR OF BLACK PANTHER AND MARSHALL IS AN IDEAL A-LIST PROSPECT

Story by BENJAMIN SCHMIDT As Told to Chastity Saunders
Photography: DENNIS LEUPOLD / Creative Direction: COURTNEY WALTER
Production: BIANCA GREY / Styling: ASHLEY WESTON & EVAN SIMONITSCH
Grooming: SAISHA BEECHAM

Like the characters he plays on-screen, Chadwick Boseman dazzled us when he stepped in front of the camera. The typically reserved actor broke out of his shell during his EBONY cover shoot.

HOMETOWN: Anderson, S.C.

ARRIVAL:
Like a true pro, Boseman came alone to the photo shoot and ready to work. Having just worked with our photographer, Dennis Leupold, he immediately felt at ease.

BITES:
The actor, who has recently gone vegan, noshed on avocado and tomato salad. He had to double-check that the salad didn't have any butter, recalling a time in Mexico when he ordered guacamole made with butter! He said it was creamy and good.

LOCATION:
We shot in an ideal retro home, with every 1970s detail down to perfection. There was even an old typewriter and

BLACK-ISH STARS ACT LIKE REAL-LIFE HUSBAND & WIFE

ANTHONY ANDERSON & TRACEE ELLIS ROSS' QUIRKY RELATIONSHIP CREATES ON-SCREEN MAGIC

by BENÉ VIERA
Photography: DENNIS LEUPOLD
Creative Direction: COURTNEY WALTER

Anthony Anderson and Tracee Ellis Ross are a fine example of two people with a great working relationship. Their chemistry is just as powerful in real life as it is on screen. They laugh together and feed off one another infectiously. And the result is always the same.

Magical.

"It's the magic that happens between us," Ellis Ross, 44, tells EBONY. "That's why it's so fun working with Anthony, 'cause the two of us work the same way."

For three seasons, the pair has graced our television screens on the hit ABC comedy black-ish. This quirky yet hilarious couple has navigated several real-life instances related to Blacks in America, from teenage sex to police brutality.

In 30 minutes, the entire cast, crew and its producers

DJ AT THE TOP

SURE, DWAYNE JOHNSON IS HOLLYWOOD'S $65 MILLION MAN, BUT HIS REAL POWER COMES FROM STAYING TRUE TO HIS IDENTITY AND MAINTAINING A CONNECTION TO A LEGION OF FANS WHO CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF HIS BOYISH CHARM—NOT TO MENTION THOSE BICEPS

HOMETOWN: Hayward, Calif.

LOCATION:
The photo shoot took place in the penthouse and on the roof of the Shangri-La hotel in Vancouver, B.C. The Shangri-La is the city's tallest building—62 stories high and 646 feet tall—and the EBONY team was the first to shoot on its rooftop. Our fearless photographer, Gavin Bond, braved the heights to get these amazing shots.

BITES:
The crew noshed on albacore niçoise salad and an assortment of artisanal sandwiches. For dessert, they had the classic Canadian treat Nanaimo bars. Dwayne Johnson (Dj) kept it simple with roasted chicken and veggies.

VANCOUVER:
Dj has been filming in British Columbia's largest metropolis since last summer, and his film created about 3,000 local jobs. The City of Vancouver proclaimed Oct. 19 as Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson Day.

FILMS:
The star is currently working on Skyscraper, about an FBI agent who is framed for the destruction of the tallest building in the world, which is slated for release in July 2018. Next up in theaters is Jurassic: Welcome to the Jungle, which will arrive just in time for Christmas.

INSTAGRAM MOTIVATION:
With over 95 million followers on Instagram, Dj is known for his positive and motivational posts such as this: "Consistent hard work gains success and just because something's never been done, doesn't mean it can't be done. #HustleTheBar #YOUvsYOU"

They Call Him Mister

Prince Keyboardist Mr. Hayes Shares Backstage Secrets

3121: Whats ur take on the Las Vegas scene so far?

MH: There is a lot of activity in Vegas. It is also cool that people sort of turn over here, meaning, there is always a new batch of folks here from week to week.

3121: Seen any shows that got u excited?

MH: I saw the Celine Dion show. It was very nice. Visually stunning. I have a couple of shows that I want to see yet. I would like to see Toni Braxton, Elton John and George Wallace's show. Oh yeah and Love.

3121: How is Prince dealing with the dry weather? Vocally -that is

MH: He uses a lot of coco butter! Seriously, as far as I can tell, the weather has had no adverse effect on his voice. I do know that it has been murder on my

Lena Morgan

3121 Head Chef: Cooking 4 A Prince

3121: Can u give readers a little of ur background, please Lena?

LM: I started cooking at the ripe old age of 6, having emigrated to LA from Seoul Korea. Both my mom and grandma are amazing cooks so food was always an integral part of family life. Food represented how much they loved you so when I cook, I try to infuse as much TLC into my dishes as I can. I started out as a pastry chef after culinary school I was fortunate enough to work at the original Spago as my first job. I learned quickly working on the line then was asked by Wolfgang to open Granita in Malibu. There, I also excelled down the line, working at every station. I left LA in the early 90s to start a family then I opened my own bakeshop on the Central Coast, eventually, I ran my own small seaside bistro with an eclectic menu. I returned to LA in the late 90s for a corporate consulting gig then I became a private chef for a high-profile film director which eventually led me to Prince.

Nandy and Maya Mclean tell us what they smell like

3121: Without boring U, we wanted 2 ask U how u met Prince but we know it was thru an audition tape. Could u elaborate on what it was like when he first started schooling u in2 the NPOT? Was it gradual or did he throw U 2 the sharks? (no2speak)

T: There are no sharks only challenges, and we are always up for a challenge. We were taught never to fear and just go for it, and that is how we live our life. By following our hearts and dreams -happiness will follow.

3121: If he favored one of u over the other, how would u handle it?

T: Being twins is very competitive, but we have learned over the years that competing leads to destruction, and for us as a duo and sisters we are an impenetrable force never to be broken.

3121: Toni, it's indeed an honor 2 b granted this inner view in2 ur universe. We've watched and admired U from afar and now it seems like we're family. U've always exuded a laid-back, down-2-earth vibe in person that so contrasts the sensual, heavenly atmosphere of ur music. Perhaps a strange ? but is there a word or phrase that best describes the "real" Toni Braxton?
